bathroom mirror sken round led 700 with light black

Item number: 20073360

Westerbergs Sken is a round mirror with lighting for bathrooms that offers a stylish impression with its softly rounded shape, framed by a narrow black frame. The integrated light creates a pleasant illumination directed towards the face, perfect for all everyday moments. With its elegance and lighting, Sken is suitable both as a bathroom mirror and hallway mirror, as well as a make-up mirror.

With the touch function, you can easily adjust the colour temperature of the light, from warm and embracing to clear and cool, to your own feeling and needs. The copper-free glass means that the mirror stays clear and free of stains even in humid environments. Installation is simplified by adjustable suspension brackets. Splash-proof, IP44-rated and adapted for bathroom environments.
